

ActivKids Ambassador independent coaches opportunities

There are approximately 4 million primary (4-11 years) aged children in the UK. 1 in 3 are overweight.

Why not add a new dimension to your skills and help these kids?

The NEW unique ActivKids Ambassador programme is at the forefront of tackling a national problem – getting kids more active!

If you can see yourself, working with children aged between 2 and 11 years old, leading groups in fun based activity sessions then why don't you become an ActivKids Ambassador?

- Do you want to be in control of your own future, doing a job that you love?
- Do you want the support and guidance of an experienced children's fitness operator, with no large upfront costs, no license fees and no service management fees?
- ActivKids is a unique programme at the forefront of tackling a national problem – getting kids more active!

ActivKids are looking for exceptional children's sports coaches to become ActivKids Ambassadors

ActivKids has been delivering quality activity sessions to children for over eight years and currently deliver over 200 sessions to over 3000 children every week in London and the South East

ActivKids expects high quality and standards in delivering activities to children and all Ambassadors must adhere to ActivKids core minimum standards, which include:

- Minimum of a UKCC level 2 qualification
- Minimum of 1 year coaching experience to primary children
- First aid training
- References from at least two community groups, schools or SSP's

ActivKids can provide further training and an enhanced CRB check if required

There are many more additional revenue streams available including product sales, birthday parties, school holiday programmes and specialist coaching
